EQUAL PAY RSA 275:37

It is illegal in New Hampshire under both state and federal law to pay employees different wages for the same work based solely on sex. If you think your employer has violated this provision, please contact the New Hampshire Department of Labor, 95 Pleasant St., Concord, NH 03301. Phone: (603) 271-1492, 271-6284, or 271-3176 Fax: (603) 271-2988 Email: inspection@doel.nh.gov You may file a wage claim by downloading the form at: <http://www.nh.gov/departmentoflabor/documents/wage-claim.pdf> The full text of RSA 275:37 Equal Pay can be found at this link: <http://www.gencourt.state.nh.us/nhslrslaw/2008/275-37.htm>

RSA 275:36-a Non-Retaliation Provision: No employer shall discharge or in any other manner discriminate against any employee because they invoke their rights under this statute, including filing charges or complaints, or causing any investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action under or related to this subdivision, or has testified or is planning to testify or has assisted or participated in any manner in any such investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action or has testified about, discussed, or disclosed his or her wages or those of another employee. This section shall not apply to any employee who has access to the wage information of other employees as a part of such employee's essential job functions who discloses the wages of such other employees to individuals who do not otherwise have access to such information, unless such disclosure is in response to a complaint or charge or in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action under RSA 275:41-a including an investigation conducted by the employer. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the rights of an employee provided under any other provision of law.

RSA 275:41-b Pay Disclosure: No employer shall require that an employee refrain from disclosing the amount of his or her wages or sign a waiver or other document that purports to deny the employee the right to disclose the amount of his or her wages, salary, or paid benefits, as a condition of employment. No employer shall discharge, formally discipline, or otherwise discriminate against an employee who discloses the amount of his or her wages, salary, or paid benefits.

RSA 275:41 Limitation of Actions: Any action to recover unpaid wages and liquidated damages based on violation of RSA 275:37, shall be commenced within 3 years of discovery of the violation. No action brought under this section shall include any violation that occurred more than 4 years prior to the commencement of such action.

THE WHISTLEBLOWERS' PROTECTION ACT - RSA 275-E

An employer may not discharge, threaten, or discriminate against any public or private employee:

- If the employee, in good faith, reports or causes to be reported an alleged violation of any law or rule adopted under the laws of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States;
- OR, the employee objects to or refuses to participate in any activity that the employee, in good faith, believes is a violation of the law or rule;
- OR, the employee refuses to execute a directive which the employee, in good faith, believes violates any law or rule adopted under the laws of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States;
- OR, the employee participates in an investigation, hearing, or inquiry conducted by any governmental entity or any court action which concerns allegations that the employer has violated any law or rule adopted under the laws of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States.

RIGHTS AND REMEDIES - RSA 275-E:4

After the employee has made a reasonable effort to maintain or restore his/her rights through any grievance procedure or similar process available with the employer. And has filed the written complaint with the New Hampshire Department of Labor. He/she may request a hearing with the New Hampshire Department of Labor, which can result in a judgment to order reinstatement, payment of fringe benefits, seniority rights, and injunctive relief.

ADDITIONAL RIGHTS AND REMEDIES FOR PUBLIC EMPLOYEES ONLY - RSA 275-E:6 and 9

Public employees can issue complaints to the New Hampshire Department of Labor, who has the authority to investigate complaints or information concerning the possible existence of any activity constituting fraud, waste, or abuse in the expenditure of any public funds, whether state or local, or relating to programs and operations involving the procurement of any supplies, services, or construction by governmental entities within the state. The identity of the person who files the complaint shall not be disclosed without his or her written consent. No governmental entity shall take any retaliatory action against a public employee who, in good faith, files a complaint under this section and the public employee shall be afforded all protections under RSA 275-E:2. No governmental entity shall threaten, discriminate, demote, fire, transfer, reassign, or discriminate against a public employee who files a complaint with the department of labor under RSA 275-E:2 or otherwise discloses or threatens to disclose activities or information that the employee reasonably believes violates RSA 275-E:2, represents a gross mismanagement or waste of public funds, property, or manpower, or evidences an abuse of authority or a danger to the public health and safety.

Criteria to Establish an Employee or Independent Contractor

"Employee" means and includes every person who may be permitted, required, or directed by any employer, in consideration of direct or indirect gain or profit to engage in any employment, but shall not include any person exempted from the definition of employee as stated in RSA 281-A:2, (b)(2)(c), (3), (4), or RSA 281-A:2, (b)(3), or a person providing services as part of a residential placement for individuals with developmental, acquired, or emotional disabilities, or any person who meets all of the following criteria:

- The person possesses or has applied for a federal employer identification number or social security number, or in the alternative, has agreed in writing to carry out the responsibilities imposed on employers under this chapter.
- The person has control and discretion over the means and manner of performance of the work, in that the result of the work, rather than the means or manner by which the work is performed, is the primary element bargained for by the employee.
- The person has control over the time when the work is performed, and the time of performance is not dictated by the employer. However, this shall not prohibit the employer from reaching an agreement with the person as to completion schedule, range of work hours, and maximum number of work hours to be provided by the person, and in the case of entertainment, the time such entertainment is to be presented.
- The person hires and pays the person's assistants, if any, and to the extent such assistants are employees, supervises the details of the assistants' work.
- The person hires himself or herself out to be in business for himself or herself or is registered with the state as a business and the person has continuing or recurring business liabilities or obligations.
- The person is responsible for satisfactory completion of work and may be held contractually responsible for failure to complete the work.
- The person is not required to work exclusively for the employer.

Notice to Employers' Employees

Your state has its own minimum wage law which requires posting a notice regarding the aspects of that law. Employees are still required to post the Federal Minimum Wage notice from the U.S. Dept. of Labor Labor Standards Act in addition to this state posting. According to the Dept. of Labor, where Federal and state law have different minimum wage rates, the higher standard applies.

This Posting is for Informational Purposes Only

WORKERS' COMPENSATION NOTICE to Employers' Employees

This is not intended to replace the law, nor does it replace any Workers' Compensation posting requirements within your state. Employees: Place your notice of compliance/certificate of insurance with Workers' Compensation Law from your insurance carrier next to this notice. Employees: Refer to notice of compliance/certificate of insurance from your Employer's Insurance Carrier if you have any further inquiries. Please contact your personnel office.

NEW HAMPSHIRE MINIMUM WAGE LAW

Revised Statutes Annotated Chapter 273, as amended. Unless otherwise provided by statute, no person, firm, or corporation shall employ any employee at an hourly rate lower than that set forth in the federal minimum wage law, as amended.

$7.25 PER HOUR EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 1, 2008

Exempt from RSA 273 are:

Employees engaged in Household Labor, Domestic Labor, Farm Labor, Outside Sales Representatives, Summer Camps for Minors, Newspaper Carriers, Non-Professional Six-Trip and Golf Caddies. OVERTIME PAY: These employees covered by RSA 273, with the following exceptions, shall in addition to their regular compensation, be paid at the rate of time and one-half for all time worked in excess of 40 hours in any one week:

- Any employee employed by an amusement, seasonal, or recreational establishment if:
 - It does not operate for more than 7 months in any calendar year;
 - During the preceding calendar year, its average receipts for any 6 months of such year were not more than 33 1/3 percent of its average receipts for the other 6 months of such year.
 - Any employee of employers covered under the provisions of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act.
- Employees of a restaurant, hotel, motel, inn, or cabin, who customarily and regularly receive more than $30 a month in tips directly from the customers will receive a base rate of an employee of not less than 45 percent of the applicable minimum wage. Restaurant shall include an establishment in a temporary or permanent building, kept, used, maintained, advertised, and held out to the public to be a place where meals are regularly prepared or served for which a charge is made and where seating and table service is available for customers or where delivery services are available. The term does not include establishments which do not primarily prepare and serve food. Tipped employees shall also include employees who deliver meals prepared in a restaurant to the customer's home, office, or other location, if an employee shows to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the actual amount of wages received at the end of each pay period did not equal the minimum wage for all hours worked. Tipped employees shall employ the difference to guarantee the applicable minimum wage.

RECORDS: Every employer of employees shall keep a true and accurate record of the hours worked by each, wages paid to each, and classification of employment when necessary.

NEW HAMPSHIRE YOUTH EMPLOYMENT LAW

No youth under the age of 16 shall be employed or permitted to work without first obtaining a New Hampshire Youth Employment Certificate issued for his/her parents, grandparents, guardian, or court appointed casual or form labor. Certificates shall be obtained by an employer within a business days of the first day of employment. Copies of certificates shall be kept on file by all employers of youths. An employer shall not employ a youth 16 or 17 years of age, unless the employer obtains and maintains on file a signed written document from the youth's parent or legal guardian permitting the youth's employment. The parental permission shall be on file at the establishment's worksite prior to the first day of employment. Written parental permission is not required for a 16 or 17 year old youth who has graduated from high school or obtained a general equivalency diploma.

PROTECTIVE LEGISLATION LAW

Wages In this Establishment Will Be Paid On:

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

PAYMENT OF WAGES: All wages due an employee must be paid on a weekly or biweekly basis. The Labor Commissioner may, upon written petition showing good and sufficient reason, permit payment of wages less frequently, except it shall be at least once each calendar month. NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE: Employer must notify employee in writing when hiring of the rate of pay, or any changes prior to change, make available in writing, or by posted notice, employment practices and policies on vacation pay, sick leave and other fringe benefits, furnish employee statement of deductions each payday. LUNCH OR EATING PERIOD: An employer may not require an employee to work more than five consecutive hours without granting him or her one half hour lunch eating period, except if it is feasible for the employee to eat during the performance of his/her work, and the employer must furnish it to be done.

ACCESS TO PERSONNEL FILE: Every employer shall provide a reasonable opportunity for an employee who so requests to inspect such employee's personnel file and upon request provide such employee with a copy of all contents of the file. WITHHOLDING WAGES: Employer may not withhold or divert any portion of an employee's wages unless required or empowered by state or federal law; or unless by written authorization by the employer for a lawful purpose according to the benefit of the employee, per regulation promulgated by the Commissioner. EMPLOYEES SEPARATED: When an employee quits, resigns, or is suspended because of labor dispute wages must be paid not later than the next regular payday or by mail if the employee so requests. Employees discharged must be paid in full within seventy-two hours. Willful failure to pay above subjects employer to liquidated damages of ten percent of the unpaid wages for each day except Sunday and legal holidays. In case of dispute over amount due, employer shall stop payment considered by him to be due, leaving employee remedies of law for redress. The acceptance of payment by employee shall not constitute a release to the balance of a claim, and any release required by an employer as a condition of payment shall be null and void in violation of the law.

REQUIRED PAY

On any day an employee reports to work at an employer's request, the employer shall be paid not less than 2 hours pay at their regular rate of pay. This does not apply to employees of counties or municipalities. CIVIL PENALTY: There may be a minimum civil penalty of $100.00 per violation of any section of the New Hampshire Labor Laws.

UNEMPLOYMENT NOTICE

If you become partially or totally unemployed:

Filing in person

File a claim in person at the office nearest you and register for work.

Example: If your last day of work was a Friday and you worked a full week, visit the office nearest you the following week. Office Hours: 8am - 4:30pm Monday - Friday

Filing over the Internet

File on-line and register for work at www.nh.gov/nhes

Example: If your last day of work was a Friday and you worked a full week, do not open your claim on-line that week. Open your claim the following Sunday - Saturday (before midnight).

Failure to apply as explained below may result in a loss in your entitlement to some benefits!

You must file your initial claim within 3 business days of becoming unemployed or no later than the last calendar day of the first week for which you wish to file for benefits. For filing purposes you are considered to be unemployed on the last day you actually work or on the day your work hours are significantly reduced. Your claim is effective the calendar week it is opened.

What should you have available before you file?

- Your social security number
- Information about where you worked in the past 18 months, including company names, addresses and approximate dates you worked there
- Your most recent check stubs, W2's and 1099 forms from the last 18 months
- The amounts of your separation pay, severance, vacation, holiday, sick, bonus pay and wages in lieu of notice you received or expect to receive

Who pays for Unemployment Compensation Taxes?

Employers pay the tax that is deposited in the Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund from which benefits are paid.

Eligibility for Unemployment Compensation is determined on an individual basis and based on the law. You have to open a claim and then file a claim each week you know if you are eligible.
