SAFETY AND HEALTH PROTECTION ON THE JOB

INTRODUCTION:
The intent of the Indiana Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1974, Indiana Code 22-8-1-1, is to assure, so far as possible, safe and healthful working conditions for the workers in the State.

EMPLOYERS:
Each employer shall establish and maintain conditions of work which are reasonably safe and healthful for employees and free from recognized hazards that are causing or likely to cause death or serious physical harm to employees. The Act further requires that employers comply with the Occupational Safety and Health Standards, Rules, and Regulations.

EMPLOYEES:
All employees shall comply with Occupational Safety and Health Standards and all rules, regulations, and orders issued under the Act, which are applicable to their own actions and conduct.

INSPECTION:
The Act requires that an opportunity be provided for employees and their representatives to bring possible safety and health violations to the attention of the Department of Labor Inspector in order to aid the inspection. This requirement may be fulfilled by allowing a representative of the employees and a representative of the employer to accompany the inspector during inspection. Where there is no employee representative, the inspector shall consult with a reasonable number of employees.

COMPLAINT:
Employees have the right to file a complaint with the Department of Labor. There shall be an inspection where reasonable grounds exist for the Department of Labor to believe there may be a hazard. Unless permission is given by the Department of Labor, the employer shall not retaliate against an employee who files a complaint with the Department of Labor. Telephone Number (317) 232-3808.

COVERAGE:
The Act does not cover those hired for domestic service in or about a private home and those covered by a federal agency. Those exempt from the Act's coverage include employees in maritime services, who are covered by the U.S. Department of Labor, and employees in atomic energy activities who are covered by the Atomic Energy Commission.

NOTE:
Under a plan approved March 6, 1974, by the U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), the State of Indiana is providing job safety and health protection for workers throughout the State. OSHA will monitor the operation of this plan to assure that continued approval is merited. Any person who makes a complaint regarding the State administration of this plan directly to the OSHA Regional Office, Regional Administration, Region X U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, 200 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60604, Telephone Number (312) 353-2220.

VIOLATION NOTICE:
When an alleged violation of any provision of the Act has occurred, the Department of Labor shall promptly issue a written order to the employer, who shall be required to post a prominently at or near the place where the alleged violation occurred until it is made safe and required stoppages are provided or 3 days, whichever is longer.

EMPLOYERS: This poster must be displayed prominently in the workplace.

INDIANA MINIMUM WAGE LAW

$7.25 per hour

Indiana law requires this poster to be displayed in a conspicuous place in the area where employees are employed.
Most Indiana employers and employees are covered by the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA); however, those not covered under federal law may still be covered by the Indiana Minimum Wage Law.

Both the federal and Indiana state minimum wage increased from $6.55 per hour to $7.25 per hour, effective July 24, 2020.
The Indiana Minimum Wage Law generally requires employers to pay employees at least the minimum wage for all hours worked and to pay employees 1 1/2 times their regular rate of pay ("overtime compensation") when employees work more than forty (40) hours during a work week. However, there are many exceptions to the overtime pay requirement. Most of those exceptions can be found at Indiana Code § 22-2-2-3 (a) - (n). Indiana law requires every employer subject to the Indiana Minimum Wage Law to furnish each employee a statement of the hours worked by the employee, the wages paid to the employee, and a listing of the deductions made. The Indiana Minimum Wage Law also prohibits pay discrimination on the basis of sex.

Tipped Employees
Generally, employers must pay tipped employees at least $2.13 per hour if the employer claims a tip credit. If the employer's tips combined with the hourly wage do not equal the minimum wage, the employer must make up the difference.

Training Wage
Indiana employers may pay $4.25 per hour to employees under 20 years of age for the first 90 consecutive calendar days after the employee is initially employed by the employer.

Violations
Indiana law provides for both civil and criminal penalties for violation of the Indiana Minimum Wage Law.

For additional information, please contact the Indiana Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division by email at wagehour@dol.in.gov or phone (317) 232-2655

Notice to Employers / Employees
Your state has its own minimum wage law which requires posting a notice regarding the aspects of that law. Employers are still required to post the Federal Minimum Wage notice from the U.S. Dept. of Labor Fair Labor Standards Act in addition to this state posting. According to the Dept. of Labor, where Federal and state law have different minimum wage rates, the higher standard applies.

This Posting is for Informational Purposes Only

Equal Employment Opportunity is the Law
