WORKER RIGHTS UNDER EXECUTIVE ORDER 13658

FEDERAL MINIMUM WAGE FOR CONTRACTORS

$13.30 PER HOUR
EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2025
DECEMBER 31, 2025

NOTICE: On March 14, 2025, President Trump Issued Executive Order 14236, "Additional Rescissions of Harmful Executive Orders and Actions," 180 FR 13037 (March 14, 2025), among other items, Executive Order 14026 of April 27, 2021, "Increasing the Minimum Wage for Federal Contractors" (96 FR 22835). Pursuant to section 201 of Executive Order 14236, the Department of Labor is no longer enforcing Executive Order 14026 or the implementing rule (29 CFR part 23) and will take steps, including rescinding 29 CFR part 23, to implement and effectuate the revocation of Executive Order 14026.

MINIMUM WAGE

Federal construction and service contracts are generally subject to a minimum wage rate under either Executive Order 13658 or EO 14026.

- $13.30 PER HOUR: If the contract was entered into on or between January 1, 2015, and January 29, 2022, and the contract is not renewed or extended on or after January 30, 2022, EO 13658 generally requires that workers be paid at least $13.30 per hour for all time spent performing on or in connection with the contract in calendar year 2025.

- $17.75 PER HOUR: If the contract is renewed or extended on or after January 30, 2022, or a new contract is entered into on or after January 30, 2022, EO 14026 generally requires that workers be paid at least $17.75 per hour for all time spent performing on or in connection with the contract in calendar year 2025.

EXCLUSIONS

- The EO 13658 minimum wage may not apply to some workers who provide support in connection with covered federal contracts for less than 20 percent of their hours worked in a week.
- The EO 13658 minimum wage may not apply to certain other occupations and workers.

ENFORCEMENT

- The U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division (WHD) is responsible for enforcing this law. WHD can answer questions about your workplace rights and protections, investigate employers, and recover back wages. All WHD services are free and confidential. Employers cannot retaliate or discriminate against someone who complains or participates in an investigation. WHD will accept a complaint in any language. You can find your nearest WHD office online at dol.gov/agencies/whd/contact/local-office or by calling toll-free 866-454-WAGE (866-487-9243). We do not ask workers about their immigration status. We can help.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Workers with disabilities whose wages are governed by special certificates issued under section 14(c) of the Fair Labor Standards Act must receive no less than the EO 13658 minimum wage for time spent performing on or in connection with covered contracts.
- Some state or local laws may provide greater worker protections and employers must follow the law that requires the highest rate of pay.
- More information about the EO 13658 minimum wage is available online at dol.gov/whd/fair/eo13658.

The law requires certain federal contractors to display this poster where employees can easily see it.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

The purpose of the disclosures below is to advise contractors which are subject to the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act or the Service Contract Act of the principal provisions of these acts.

WALSH-HEALEY PUBLIC CONTRACTS ACT

General Provisions — This act applies to contracts which exceed or may exceed $10,000 entered into by any agency or instrumentality of the United States for the manufacture or furnishing of materials, supplies, articles, or equipment. The act establishes minimum wage, maximum hours, and safety and health standards for work on such contracts, and prohibits the employment on contract work of laborers unless certain conditions are met and children under the age of 18. The employment of nonmembers excepted from the act. The act prohibits the employment of persons who are not members of the act. In addition to its coverage of private contractors, the act also covers the employment of persons on contracts for the performance of work on contracts awarded by the government private contractor.

Minimum Wage — Covered employees must be paid no less than the federal minimum wage established in section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Overtime — Covered workers must be paid at least one and one-half times their basic rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 40 in a week. Overtime is due on the basis of the total hours spent in all work, Government and non-Government, performed by the employee in any week in which covered work is performed.

Child Labor — Employers may employ children against certain restrictions but may not employ children in hazardous work. The act prohibits the employment of children in hazardous work. The act prohibits the employment of children in hazardous work. The act prohibits the employment of children in hazardous work.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

FEDERAL MINIMUM WAGE

$7.25 PER HOUR
BEGINNING JULY 24, 2009

The law requires employers to display this poster where employees can readily see it.

OVERTIME PAY At least 1½ times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in a workweek.

CHILD LABOR

An employee must be at least 16 years old to work in most non-farm jobs and at least 18 to work in non-farm jobs designated hazardous by the Secretary of Labor. Youths 14 and 15 years old may work outside school hours in various non-manufacturing, non-mining, non-hazardous jobs with certain work hour restrictions. Different rules apply to agricultural employment.

TIP CREDIT

Employers of "tipped employees" who meet certain conditions may claim a tip credit against the minimum wage. The tip credit may be used to offset the employer's cash wage of at least $2.13 per hour if they claim a tip credit against their minimum wage obligation. If an employer's tip combined with the employer's cash wage of at least $2.13 per hour do not equal the minimum hourly wage, the employer must make up the difference.

PINCH AT WORK

The FLSA requires employers to provide reasonable break time for a nursing employee to express breast milk for their nursing child for one year after the child's birth each time the employee needs to express breast milk. Employers must provide a place, other than a bathroom, that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from coworkers and the public, which may be used by the employee to express breast milk.

The Department has authority to recover back wages and an equal amount in liquidated damages in instances of minimum wage, overtime, and other violations. The Department may litigate and recover criminal prosecution. Employers may be assessed civil money penalties for each willful or repeated violation of the minimum wage and overtime pay provisions of the FLSA.

Civil money penalties may also be assessed for violations of the FLSA's child labor provisions. Highest civil money penalties may be assessed for each child labor violation that results in the death or serious injury of any minor employee, and each assessment may be doubled when the violations are determined to be willful or repeated. The law also prohibits retaliating against or discharging workers who file a complaint or participate in any proceeding under the FLSA.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Certain occupations and establishments are exempt from the minimum wage, and/or overtime pay provisions. Certain narrow exemptions also apply to the points of work requirements.
- Special provisions apply to workers in American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

- Some state laws provide greater employee protections; employers must comply with both.
- Some employers incorrectly classify workers as "independent contractors" when they are actually employees under the FLSA. It is important to know the difference between the two because employees (unless exempt) are entitled to the FLSA's minimum wages and overtime pay protections. Correctly classifying workers is important.

- Certain full-time students, student learners, apprentices, and workers with disabilities may be paid less than the minimum wage under special certificates issued by the Department of Labor.
